DEWEY STARTS HIS PRESIDENTIAL DRIVE WITHOUT LOSS TIME

HOLDS "WORLD'S BIGGEST PRESS CONFERENCE" IN CHICAGO THURSDAY

CHICAGO, June 29.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey told what he called the "world's biggest press conference" today that he hopes to confer with all of the nation's Republican leaders, including Wendell L. Willkie, on presidential campaign plans.

Declining to discuss cabinet possibilities—if he wins the White House—the smiling GOP nominee gave speedy endorsement to many planks of the party's platform, including those on foreign policy, the president's Fair Employment Practices Committee, foreign trade and others.

Dewey appeared fresh and rested at his press conference, despite the physical strain of shaking thousands of hands at a public reception lasting past midnight last night.

Dewey was asked specifically if he "welcomes the editorial support of the Chicago Tribune," which once criticized his views on foreign policy. There was a laugh from the reporters.

Smilingly, Dewey replied:

"I don't know that I have the editorial support of the Tribune. I shall welcome the support of every good American in the whole United States."

Roosevelt Fashion.

The nominee sat on a table and puffed a cigarette-in-holder much after the Franklin D. Roosevelt fashion, while the reporters asked their questions.

One query was how he planned to reach the service men with campaign appeals. Dewey replied that had not yet been determined.

Dewey covered a wide range of issues in answer to questions. He said he had read the Republican platform only once—while he was en route here by plane—and that "it represents my views."

Referring to Dewey's promise to gather young men around him, a reporter asked if that meant he would discharge Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

"You are asking me to pass on the mental vigor of Mr. Hull," Dewey replied. "I will not do that. I am not engaging in cabinet-picking at this time."

Satisfied With Plank.

Dewey expressed satisfaction with the foreign trade plank of the party platform. While stating that some persons thought it might have been better, Dewey said it should be recognized that the platform was drawn by persons with conflicting opinions, and that is a result there had to be some compromising.

"This was totally an unbossed convention," he declared. "The delegates were free to reach their own dcisions."

Parts of the foreign trade plank may appear at first blush to be inconsistant, he said, recalling that the plank promised an "adequate protective tariff" on compa-

JESSE JONES DENIES ANY PART IN TEXAS STATE CONVENTION

SECRETARY OF COMMERCE REPLIES TO NEWSPAPER EDITORIAL

WASHINGTON, June 29.—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones says in a letter to the Washington Post that "I had no part, either directly or indirectly, in plans for or proceedings of the Texas State democratic convention."

(The convention was held May 23 in Austin.)

Jones' letter yesterday replied to a Post editorial of June 22 saying Jones and William L. Clayton, surplus war property administrator, "have been commonly reported in connection with the plot" to subvert electoral votes by having them cast against candidates they chose to support.

"I was not consulted, directly or indirectly, on the choice of delegates to the national convention or the electors of the state of Texas," Jones' letter said.

"I had no foreknowledge of the resolution to be offered at or adopted by the Texas State democratic cnovention."

The Post, in an accompanying editorial, said "We are glad to have Mr. Jones' disavowal."

"Our apologies are due Mr. Clayton," a later editorial continued, "if we seemed to give credence to the report (concerning him.) It is established that he has not been active in organization politics in Texas."

(During the Austin convention, pro-Roosevelt forces split off from the regular convention, the latter of which instructed its presidential electors to vote for someone other than the party nominee for president if certain conditions were not met by the national convention.)

U. S. Casualties Reach 251,158 Men On All Fronts

WASHINGTON, June 29.—(AP)—American casualties in the war, including the first two weeks of battle in Normandy, total 251,158. Of these, 55,206 are dead—35,104 soldiers and 20,102 navy, marines and coast guard personnel.

Secretary of War Stimson reported today that through June 18 American army casualties were 179,923 of which 32,022 were killed, 73,668 wounded, 37,766 missing and 36,467 prisoners. These figures he explained, did not include casualties in France because compilation of casualties from individual names transmitted from the field to the war department lagged behind actual events.

To be added to them, however, was the report of supreme allied headquarters that during hte first two weeks of fighting in France American casualies totalled 24,172 with 3,082 killed, 13,121 wounded and 7,959 missing.

The latest navy casualty list totals 47,073, including 20,102 dead, 13,202 wounded 9,308 missing and 4,461 prisoners.

The battle casualties for the army, not including those in France, showed an increase of 1,246 since Stimson's report of a week ago which covered the period through June 6. There was an increase of 733 dead and 2,236 wounded.

The navy casualty list was 368 above a week ago, with 58 more dead and 297 wounded.

The other appropriations measures included labor department and federal security $1,112,644,000; war agencies, $1,030,937,000; deficiencies and supplementals $772,491,000; state, justice and commerce departments, $241,937,000; agriculture 562,145,000; interior department, $103,239,000; and District of Columbia, $69,111,000.

Oak Leaf Cluster For M-Sgt. Foster

M-Sgt. James T. Foster, 36th Division, Texas National Guard has been awarded an Oak Leaf Cluster in lieu of a second Purple Heart, according to a letter received by his wife, Mrs. Glenna Foster, Thursday.

Sgt. Foster has been on the front lines in Italy almost continuously since last September, and was awarded the Purple Heart decoration after he was wounded in the leg several months ago. He was recently wounded in the arm by shrapnel that hit his hedmet. Sgt. Foster wrote a few days ago he was having a great deal of fun "at the expense of the Germans" as they retreat before the Fifth Army.

The non-commissioned officer was mobilized with the local Texas National Guard units in November, 1940, and is a highest-ranking non-commissioned officed in the 36th Division artillery communications.

HOUSEWIVES WILL TAKE RATION BOOKS TO MARKET AGAIN

WASHINGTON, June 29.—(AP)—Housewives will have to take their ration books to market again in buying choice lamb cuts and soft cheeses, and the butcher will take one or two more points a pound for beef steaks and roasts.

The Office of Price Administration, announcing point values for the period from next Sunday through July 29, said today it was necessary to put choicer lamb cuts—lamb chops, steaks and roasts—back under rationing because national distribution has been equitable. Values assigned range from three points a pound for some chuch roasts to 10 points for loin chops.

The supply of beef steaks and roasts will be smaller by 12 percent in July, OPA explained in hiking the point values to a record high, a porterhouse steak, for example, will cost 14 points a pound, up two, while a seven-inch cut standing rib roast goes from eight to 10 points a pound.

The decision to put points back on lamb was made, OPA said, when three out of four of the agency's 84 district offices reported that choice cuts were short of demand.

Because return of popular lamb cuts to the chart is counterbalanced by a smaller supply of beef, housewives will continue to get only 30 points a month for buying meats and fats. The allotment was 60 points a month before all meat except choice beef was made ration-free early in May.

All pork, veal and the cheaper cuts of beef and lamb remain point-free, and butter and margarine continue at 12 and two points a pound, respectively.

Soft cheeses, the so-called perishable varieties including Swiss and Cream, go from a point-free value to four points a pound.

RUSSIAN ARMIES IN DRIVE ON MINSK ARE PUSHING NAZIS BACK

GERMANS RETREATING ALONG SAME ROAD OF NAPOLEON'S DEBACLE

LONDON, June 29.—(AP)—Powerful Russian armies lashing out both on the White Russian and Finnish fronts have captured Bogruisk, last "Fatherland Line" fortress before Minsk, and have cleared the northern rail line to Murmansk, Marshal Stalin announced tonight.

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, June 29.—(AP)—Soviet armies converging on Minsk drove within 37 miles of the White Russian capital today pushing the Germans swiftly back over the same road to Warsaw and Berlin which Napoleon followed in his disastrous retreat from Moscow.

Like a huge grasping hand, the Red army reached for Minsk while artillery and bombers blasted a way for the ground forces.

The hand-like Soviet offensive was formed by units fanning out to the northeast of Minsk like fingers, while strong groups southeast of the city formed the thumb.

With the freeing of Mogilev the Russians for the first time in nearly three years have a direct rail route between Leningrad and Odessa.

LONDON, June 29.—(AP)—The Red army stormed closer to the White Russian capital of Minsk today after capturing the nazi strongholds of Mogilev, Lepel and Osipuvichi in a swift, crushing offensive that in less than a week has reclaimed 25,000 square miles of Russian soil and cut deeply into Hitler's divisions on the eastern front.

A broadcast Moscow communique said that Bobruisk, last nazi

TEXAS HEADING FOR HOME STRETCH IN FIFTH WAR LOAN

DALLAS, June 29.—(AP)—Chairman Nathan Adams of the Texas War Finance committee says Texas is heading for the "home stretch" in Fifth War Loan sales, having passed the half way mark.

On June 27, official sales totalled $237,372,243 or 51.2 per cent of the over-all quota of $464,000,000 said Adams.

Meanwhile, U. S. treasury officials reporter that metropolitan Dallas led the nation's larger cities in the drive, with purchases of $76,545,957.09 in bonds compared with a $74,890,000 quota.

According to latest official reports, seventeen of the state's 264 counties had gone over the top. They were Andrews, Angelina, Archer, Callahan, Camp, Clay, Fisher, Harrison, Jim Hogg, Mills, Panola, Real, Stephens, Sutton, Taylor, Upshur and Willacy counties.

In a bond rally at Commerce yesterday which netted over $187,000 and put Commerce nearer its $275,000 goal, an automobile tire sold for $5,000 in bonds and a white-faced yearling bull netted $25,000.

MORE THAN THOUSAND HEAVY U. S. BOMBERS ATTACKED GERMANY

SYNTHETIC OIL REFINERY AND OTHER MILITARY, INDUSTRIAL POINTS HIT

LONDON, June 29—(AP)—Upwards of 1,000 Fortresses and Liberators attacked Germany today, hitting four aircraft producing centers, a synthetic oil refinery and a number of other military and industrial targets in the center of the Reich.

Escorted by an equal number of fighters, the heavies attacked aircraft plants at Leipzig, Oschersleben and Fallersleben and a refinery at Bohlsen, capping a 12-hour Allied air offensive which saw more than 3,000 warplanes scourging important Nazi installations across the face of Northwestern Europe.

A supreme headquarters announcement said that at least 44 enemy fighters were destroyed. About 200 challenged the allied craft over the battle area. The Germans now are forced to send their fighters from bases more than 100 miles behind the lines as the result of allied attacks on enemy airdromes, SHAEF asserted.

RAF bombers also swept out across the channel during the afternoon for a return assault on the Germans' flying bomb installations and heavily blasted launching ramps and equipment in Northenn France. The attack cost five British planes.

Leipzig, Oschersleben and Ascharsleben are within 90 to 100 miles outhwest of Berlin, while Fallersleben is 40 miles East of Hannover. Bohlsen also is in the Hannover area.

Railroad centers haltingly feeding reinforcements to the Germans' taxed battlelines were other targets in the big assault.

In darkness before the American heavies swept out, some 500 RAF Halifaxes carried the campaign against Nazi supply lines to the German border, bombing railroad yards in the region of Metz, near the world war battlefield of Verdun.

Night Raids

Simultaneously, night raiding Mosquitos hit Saarbrucken, a railroad center atacked by the American heavies yesterday, and an oil plant near Essen in the Ruhr.

The Mosquitos made their attack without loss, while the British heavy bomber assault on Metz cost 20 planes.

The night blows came after dayers had penetrated to Thuringia, an Eastern German Province bordering on Czechoslovakia, and de-

Purple Heart Is Awarded Sailor Killed In Action

The Purple Heart decoration awarded Percy H. Kelly, 23, baker 3-C, U. S. Navy, killed in action Dec. 1, 1942, in the South Pacific theatre of operations, has been received by the hero's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Kelly, 1707 West Second avenue. He volunteered for service June, 1940.

Received with the award was a handsomely engraved tribute signed by Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, as follows:

"In grateful memory of Percy Howard Kelly, who died in the service of his country at sea, Pacific area, USS Pensacola, December 1, 1942. He stands in the unbroken line of patriots who have dared to die that freedom might live, and grow and increase its blessings—Freedom lives and through it he lives—in a way that humbles the undertakings of most men."

The award was made for "military merit and for wounds received in action resulting in death."

SPEED OF RUSSIAN ADVANCE INDICATES HITLER HAS CHOSEN SHORTER LINE ON OLD POLAND

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.

Substituting for DeWitt Mackensie

The speed of the Red advance through White Russia, with the capure of Minsk apparently only a few days away, supports previous reports that Hitler has withdrawn his major forces to shorter lines back in old Poland—possibly along the Bug river.

Points like Orsha and Mogilev don't fall overnight when the Germans really try to hold them, even before such great power as tht Russians are displaying. The Berlin radio, broadcasting about an elastic defense in the east, without benefit of reserves until the allies have been taken care of in the west, also supports the thought. If that were true, no such broadcast would have been made.

For a year there have been reports from various sources that the Germans were preparing to stand at the Bug, the "Ribbentrop" border established in 1939, and that if driven back from there a last ditch fight would e made along the Vistula.

This would not mean, of course, an uninterrupted Russian March over the 300 miles from their present central positions, or the 100 miles from their westernmost salient at Kowel, to Brest Litovsk. Large German armies already have been beaten or trapped in the present drive. They are not all gone. Delay will be attempted at every strong point, principally at Minsk, Baranowicke, Bailystok and Brest Litovsk, and there pribably will be a tremendous battle for Lwow when the fighting is extended southward.

But, as in Italy, the Germans probably are down to the point where little effort will be made to save territory which obviously cannot be held for long.

Fifth War Loan Sales Reach Over Half-Way Point

WASHINGTON, June 29—(AP)—With sales to corporations and other non-banking investors shooting upward, emphasis shifted today to sales to individuals in the $16,000,000,000 Fifth War Loan Drive.

Sales Tuesday totaled $3,369,000,000, the highest ever reported for one day in any of the War Loan Drives. This increased total sales since the campaign opened June 12 to $9,374,000,000,000, 59 percent of the quota. The current drive ends July 8.

Sales to corporations and other non-banking investors now total $7051,000,000, 71 percent of the quota for these investors, but sales to individuals have reached only 39 percent of this quota, with $2,323,000,000 subscribed so far.

FINLAND IS FACED WITH COLLAPSE ALL FREE GOVERNMENT

NAZIS SWARM THROUGH COUNTRY NOW IN FULL HITLER COLLABORATION

By EDWIN SHANKE

STOCKHOLM, June 29.—(AP)—Finland was faced with the threatened collapse of virtually all semblance of Democratic government today as Nazi troops swarmed through that tragic Baltic country, now plunged into full military collaboration with Germany.

At a parliament meeting today the five cabinet ministers of the dominant social democratic party were scheduled to withdraw formally from the government of President Risto Ryti and Premier Edwin Linkomies, which opened the doors of southern Finland to Nazi troops.

Such action would strip the Finnish government of a great segment of popular support. Associated Press Correspondent Robert Sturdevant, who returned to Stockholm after five days in Helsinki, said he had the impression that the resignations might be withheld, however, lest they cause collapse of the morale of Finnish troops at the front.

The progressive party and the Spedish peoples' party also expressed no confidence in the government in party caucuses. One progressive member may withdraw from the cabinet.

AMERICAN TROOPS MOVE FORWARD ON WEST COAST ITALY

HIGHWAYS LITTERED WITH ENEMY DEAD AND ABANDONED EQUIPMENT

By NOLAND NORGAARD

ROME, June 29.—(AP)—Along a highway littered with enemy dead and abandoned equipment, American troops of the Fifth army punched forward another five miles along Italy's west coast yesterday and captured the town of Castagneto, only 25 miles from Livorno (Loghorn), while a second American column farther inland pierced through German lines to within a dozen miles of Siena, allied headquarters said today.

Livorno is an important port 11 miles below Pisa, while Siena is a key rail and communications center 31 miles south of Florence.

An official spokesman declared the enemy "is showing signs of confusion" in the coastal sector, where the incessant battering by American guns caused heavy casualties and the roundup of prisoners from decimated German units progressed steadily.

Capture of Castagneto gave the allies control of an important lateral road which formerly linked the nemy's coastal defenders with the nazis central sector.

Delaying Action.

The enemy intensified by every conceivable means the retarding of the Fifth army advance, felling trees across roads, then boobytrapping them, destroying all bridges and laying minefields. The tactics failed to prevent a close pursuit, and an enemy infantry company which attempted to break the advance by the infiltration back into the captured village of Sasseta was wiped out.

Air Group 12 Has Great Record In Navy Air Force

WASHINGTON, June 29.—(AP)—There are "no heroes, no hotshots" in air group 12, but it's one of the hardest hitting aggregations of fliers in the navy.

Commander Joseph C. (Jumping Joe) Clifton, Paducah, Ky., commanding officer of the group wrote off the "heroes" and "hotshots" today, when the navy disclosed that his group had inflicted this damage on the Japanese:

102 planes destroyed.

78 enemy plnaes damaged.

101,500 tons of enemy shipping sunk.

198,500 tons of shipping damaged.

"We trained to fight together, and we fought that way, not as individuals, but as parts of the team,' Clifton explained.

The navy added that only 12 of the air group's planes were lost in a year of action in the Pacific.

GEN. MONTGOMERY, HOWEVER, SMASHED MANY COUNTERATTACKS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 29.—(AP)—American doughboys have killed 5,000 to 6,000 Germans and captured 37,383 since the landings in France, a staff officer said today.

By WES GALLAGHER

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 29.—(AP)—The Germans were reported today to have thrown the bulk of their 15th and 17th armies into the defense of Caen in an attempt to halt the British flanking thrust south of the inland port.

But Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's men smashed nine counterattacks in 24 hours and widened a breach in the enemy lines.

Supreme headquarters announced British infantry and armor were streaming across the Odon river southwest of Caen in an ever-widening bridgehead.

Field dispatches said the German command had sent virtually the entire strength of the two armies into fierce armored fighting raging on three sides of the city.

(The German communique said the British were attacking on a 17-mile front and had achieved a "minor break-in" in the brushy terrain southwest of Caen. One German tank formation destroyed 53 allied tanks the communique declared. The Germans' Hitler Youth 12th tank division was said to have distinguished itself in the fighting.)

Murderous Barrage.

A field dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Roger Greene said hundreds of British guns laid down a "murderous barrage" against German armored forces moving up to attack the British right flank and quoted British officers as saying "German movement on the roads is being slaughtered by our planes."

The Germans threw 150 tanks into flank attacks yesterday, the dispatch said, and much hand to-hand fighting occurred in the woods where the British hunted down Germans in camouflaged nests.

Heavy fighting, including large-scale tank clashes, raged at distances of two to four miles from the strongly-defended German base in eastern Normandy. Little change, however, has occurred in the front positions in the past 12 hours.

While British tanks beat against the enemy in a flaming battle at points less than four miles southwest of Caen in an eastward thrust that would strangle the city's communications, other forces battered the enemy from the north and northwest in fighting almost equally as bitter.

JAPANESE CAPTURE U. S. AIRFORCE BASE AT HENGYANG, CHINA

ONE OF FIRST MAJOR FRUITS IN ENEMY DRIVE TO CUT CHINA IN TWO

CHUNGKING, June 29—(AP)—Hengyang still was in Chinese hands tonight, the high command said, although Japanese forces besieging the Hunan Province rail junction had been reinforced.

The communique declared Chinese troops left behind enemy lines East and West of the Canton-Hankow railway had begun large-scale offensives.

By J. B. KRUEGER

Associated Press War Editor

Japanese troops hammering at Hengyang have captured the U. S. Airforce base there, thus reaping one of the first major fruits of their drive to slice China in two. It was partial recompense for the progressive American conquest of Saipan in the Pacific.

Chungking, conceding abandonment of the advance field, reported the vital Chinese city had burst into flames under the pressure of the greatest Japanese China offensive since 1938.

Loss of the base was a hard blow to the Allies, and Maj. Gen. Claire Chennault's fliers quickly retaliated, dropping 1,000-pound bombs from their P-51s and knocking out one runway.

Hengyang, key point on the Hankow-Caton railway, is surrounded. Its loss would greatly advance Japana's presumed aim of bisecting the country along the rail line and blocking the Allies out of coastal China.

Chennault's 14th airforce threw all its weight into the Hengyang battle, but Chungking previously has acknowledged the Chinese ground defenders were in a critical position

SUPERVISOR URGES PASTURE MOWING TO CONTROL WEEDS

W. C. Pearce, Corsicana, a supervisor of Navarro-Hill soil conservation district, is strongly urging the mowing of pastures to control weeds and sprouts. He believes that a mower is the best implement for pasture improvement.

Practical tests show that pound for pound weeds require twice the amount of moisture necessary for grasses. Mowing of weeds allows grass more moisture, sunlight, plant food and air. At the Angleton substation experiment station, experimental yields of mowed Bermuda grass were double, and total protein and phosphorus were four times greater than from unmowed grass, Pearce said.

The two major base grasses for this section are Bermuda grass on more fetile, moist soils, and Buffalo grass on tighter soils and higher slopes. These two mat grasses are easily damaged by the shading of taller weeds. Buffalo grass responds to mowing more quickly than any other grass in this area.

Perhaps the best Buffalo grass pasture in the county was developed on the old Pruitt ranch by its present owner, Mrs. Alma Thurman, using nothing but a mowing machine. Clyde Freeman also near Emhouse, has also developed a similar pasture in a like manner, it was stated.

Close-clipped pastures make ideal conditions for fall growing supplemental legumes and grasses such as rescue, rye, sour clover, sweet clover and burr clover.

Good pastures make returns in pounds of beef per acre comparable to yields of cotton in pounds per acre. It is reasonable to believe that the pounds of beef a developed pasture will produce per acre are comparable to its yields in pounds of lint cotton. If the land will make 200 pounds of lint cotton per acre, you may expect 200 pounds of beef on the same acre of land, according to Pearce.

LIKE ISRAEL OF OLD, WORLD FACES SHAPING OF NATIONS*

Joshua Takes Up the Task of Moses, and Leads Hebrews to Conquest of Canaan—Qualities That Bring Power—Ruins of Fallen Jericho Uncovered

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

In this era of making and remaking nations, the millions of Sunday School members are confronted by three months of study in "The Making of a Nation: Joshua to David." There should be light upon the present's vast problem from the experiences of early Israel.

In a crisis time not unlike the present, General Joshua came in to power, by appointment of Moses. Moses, the lawgiver and statesman, was dead, without having set foot upon the Promised Land. Joshua was a soldier rather than a prophet. He provad himself, forty years before his accession to leadership, by his courage and confidence as one of the twelve spies sent into Canaan from Kadesh-Barnea.

Now he was in supreme command, as the Israelites, disciplined by their forty years in the wilderness, stood on the eastern shores of the Jordan, ready for the great adventure of the conquest of Canaan.

As It Was, So It Is

Europe's present muddle was prefigured in the condition of the nations that Joshua faced. All about him, and in front of him, were little peoples, ever-warring rivals. To the south lay mighty Egypt; and to the east, Babylonia, both with imperial plans. Joshua's orders from Jehovah were to wipe out the pagan peoples of Canaan; and we spontaneously think of the devastating bombing of Europe. The Hebrew invasion caused relatively as much jitters on both sides of the Jordan as the invasion of Europe has caused in our time. The Tell el Amarna tablets give the Egyptian version of the story.

First of the problems of the Hebrews was one of morale. Their fathers had failed in their great commission; as the first World War failed with us. They had been delivered from Egypt with a high hand; but they lacked the stamina to carry through. So Israel had to spend forty years in the wilderness waiting for this generation of slackers to die off; and to train a better crop of heroes. Now they had come to the border of the Promised Land, and their great emprise.

Strength For Victory

Most potent of the weapons a nation can wield is the morale of the people. Thus Great Britain withstood Hitler in the crises of the war. It was the undefeated heart of the people that preserved the nation after Dunkirk. God's own command to Joshua was that the people "Be strong, and of good courage;" "Be strong and very courageous."

Bringing Israel's situation over to our own times, our summons, too, is courage, and yet more courage. The enemies we most have to fear are a self-centered complacency, and concern over trivial individual inconveniences.

Like Israel,, we are poised on the verge of an adventure too great for our comprehension. We have to build a new world on the foundations of justice and good will and peace. Evils that have existed since the beginning of time must be wiped out. This seems a task for angels, rather than for mortals; yet the Divine command comes ringing down the centuries, into the consciences of every one of us, "Be strong, and of good courage."

The Walls of Jericho

First objective of the Hebrew host was the City of Jericho, in the center of the lush Jordan Valley. We are all familiar with the dramatic story of the seven days' march by the Israelites around the walls of the besieged city; and how, at the seventh circuit on the seventh day, the walls fell down, and the city was sacked and burned.

Not all of us, however, know that today those ruins have been uncovered, and the traveler may look, as I have looked, upon the smoke-stained walls of the destroyed city. Dr. John Karsang, then head of the Palestine Department of Antiquities, performed this mighty archeological feat. Few Bible students are aware of this dramatic vindication of the historicity of the Bible story.

There have been three Jerichos, and the traveler may see them all—this excavated city of Joshua's time; the later Jericho that Jesus knew, and the present-day green and fertile city which is the winter resort of modern Jerusalemites.

This Lesson occurs near the great national holidays of the United States and Canada—Independence Day and Dominion Day. It should stir every one of us to fresh thoughts concerning national destiny. Both of our great nations, moved to their depths by the exigencies of war, and fronting incredible opportunities, need to heed the lesson of the people who failed to fulfill the Divine will for them, and to carry on the mission assigned them. The Hebrews never fully conquered the Canaanites. Nor did they need the solemn injunction of their aged leader, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate thereon day and night." There is a direct relation between the study of the Bible and the creation of a new world order.

Price Ceilings For Used Passenger Cars Effective July 10th

Price ceilings for used passenger cars take effect on July 10, 1944, in order to protect thousands of families and businesses from serious increases in their living and operations cost, to encourage the movement of cars into the hands of those who need them to carry on essential work by removing the incentive to hold cars for higher prices, and to encourage the reconditioning of used cars so that they will run the greatest possible number of miles, according to the Dallas district OPA office.

Used cars continually become more important to the maintenance of war production. No new cars have been manufactured since March, 1942, and each day more than 4,000 care are worn beyond repair and disappear from our highways, OPA explains. We have a reserve of only 40,000 new cars—about the number we wear out every nine days. There is no immediate prospect for any sizeable production of new passenger cars, so for some time to come, essential workers and businesses must replace their worn-out cars by pudchas of used ones. This means that every day essential war workers and businesses depend more and more on the availability of good used cars.

Figures quoted by OPA officials show that 73 per cent of all workers in war plants depend on automobiles to get to work. In over 2000 cities with a total population of more than 11 million, businesses and workers depend entirely on automobiles for transportation.

Most public transportation facilities are now operating at critical capacities. Additional loads would create many serious transportation problems. Since war production depends so much on automobile transportation, cars must be made available at prices which war workers and businesses

FARMERS HAVE LARGE INCOME UNDER PRICE SUPPORT SYSTEM

DALLAS, June 29.—(AP)—Under the gopernment's support pryice system, on more than 40 commodities, farmers have a gross income of more than $20,000,000,000, says War Food Adinistrator Marpin Jones.

In a radio address here last night, Jones called that sum "the largest income farmers have ever had." He added that congressional assurance that support prices of not less than 90 per cent of parity would be continued for three years following the close of hostilities was of "tremendous value."

Jones said "more food has been produced in the last three years than any nation ever produced in any three yeats in history."

"We have 81,000,000 cattle, several million more than ever before," Jones told the radio audience. "We have 120,000,000 hogs, far more than there ever were. We have more eggs and more potatoes and more poultry than at any time before. Our nation, the Allied nations owe the producer a debt of gratitude."

Although he did not comment on current politics, he said in an interview preceding the radio address that food rationing, perhaps in a milder form than now, would be necessary for a short time even after the war, but gave assurance that rationing in all forms would be abandoned as quickly as possible.

A native of Cooke county, Texas, Jones stopped here en route from Washington to his home in Amarillo.

COMING HOME

One of the few pleasant things about this war has been that so many of the boys were able to come home occasionally for a short visit. It gave them a rest, enabled them to review old acquaintance, and mightily pepped up their parents, relatives and friends. Modern communication has made it possible. The mail service, too, has been excellent. Never before have men in the armed services been able to maintain such close contact with their families.

Needless to say, this fraternal and humane touch in what must be, for the most part, a grim and savage life, is warmly appreciated. All the more so when, as often happens, the homecoming fighter is laden with honors that speak for themselves, if the hero is too modest to parade his own exploits.

Usually he seems to shrink from telling about them. But the decorations speak for him with mute eloquence. And even the most apologetic hero, with his awkward protests that he did nothing unusual, or did it by compulsion or accident, cannot help glowing inwardly. He may well be proud that he has done a double service—to his country and himself. For he emerges from his baptism no longer afraid.

FRENCH PARTIES

Julius Caesar, in the "Commentaries" that he wrote about 2,000 years ago, observed that all Gaul was divided into three parts, and the bravest of the Gauls were the Belgians. But they were all good fighters, as ready for a scrap as our traditional Irishmen. And they have retained many of their ancient characteristics clear down to the present day, even when they were in bondage to the Germans.

It was largely their tendency to fight among themselves that brought them to their present state. They wouldn't compromise about national problems in the British and American manner, but everybody wanted to govern. They were much like Stephen Leacock's hero who had a habit of "leaning upon his horse and riding off rapidly in all directions."

The problem now is how to get the French people out of their present plight. Presumably they will be freed automatically when the Hitler gang is licked. But what then? Will they just start quarreling again, and dividing themselves politically into two dozen different groups all wanting to ride that political horse? It would help a lot if they could whittle themselves down to three parts, or parties, as in Caesar's day.

JAPS IN FRANCE

Japanese prisoners in Northern France were the most surprising bag of the invasion. The number is not great; probably few Japanese troops were sent to this front. The Japanese are testifying to the solidarity of the Axis by making a token contribution of what they can spare best, and what the Germans need most. That is men.

But—how did Japanese soldiers ever get to France?

Sure, the kids catch on. There's the lad, for instance, who says that when his mother sends him to the store, she calls him in first for his "briefing."

Edgar A. Guest

SOLDIER SILENCE.

"Oh, all I know of poetry and fancy speech and song
Is they may cheer you up a bit when things are going wrong.
Fine speeches are for peace time; for when the fighting starts
The heroes are the fellows who possess the stoutest hearts.

"I'm just a private, home once more, a ribbon on my chest,
And soldiers on the fighting line by speeches aren't impressed.
They've been with comrades under fire, land, ocean and the sky
And they have learned the bitterness of seeing comrades die.

"To 'stay at homes' all medals are a sign of glorious pluck;
But those who wear them smile and say they're just a sign of luck.
A thousand others would have done the self-same deeds, they swear,
But luck was very kind, and we just happened to be there."

These fellows who have shared a charge against some fire-swept beach
Have lived to learn the difference 'twixt deed and fancy speech
Yet, freedom is because of them; and, silent though they stay,
Their deeds will still be eloquent a thousand years away.

(Copyright, 1941, Edgar A. Guest)

VOTES BY V-MAIL

Soldiers may or may not be able to vote in any large numbers. Congress put it up to the states, and some legislatures have been more interested than others in ensuring a large soldier vote.

But even if a soldier can't vote, he can at least say whom he would vote for, and he is going to be systematically urged to do so. The Democrats, and perhaps the Republicans also, are talking of sending a V-mail letter to every soldier, asking if he has received a ballot. If not, he will be asked to write home, stating his choice for president.

If many respond to this appeal, it will be a telling stroke for the candidate of their choice. In a close election the uncast yet announced soldier vote might turn the scale.

ARTISTIC LOOT

The Nazi forces in Italy, slowly rolled back north by the Allies, now approach Florence from the south and will soon be there temporarily in considerable force. As they approach again that famous and beautiful city which flourished in the Italian Renaissance and has been cherished ever since as one of the world's greatest centers of creative art, civilized people everywhere hold their breath.

Will the invading Germans complete there the looting of artistic treasures which they began when they marched southward on their way to Rome and Naples? Will they completely loot the great museums which for centuries have drawn so many cultured visitors from all the world, to see the masterpieces of paintings and sculpture and other fine arts that made Florence a place of glory? Or will they refrain from further stealing and destorying, in fear of the retribution they have already earned?

SCHOOL IS WORTH WHILE

A lad in the armed forces, stationed in the French Pacific colony of the New Hebrides, writes his teacher that he wishes he had, while in school, paid more attention to his French lessons. They would now come in very handy.

French is not the only subject so appreciated too late. Teachers have a real chance now to show their pupils that school lessons are not something arbitrarily chosen to make children miserable, but topics of real value in after life. The returned soldiers will be their allies in driving this home.

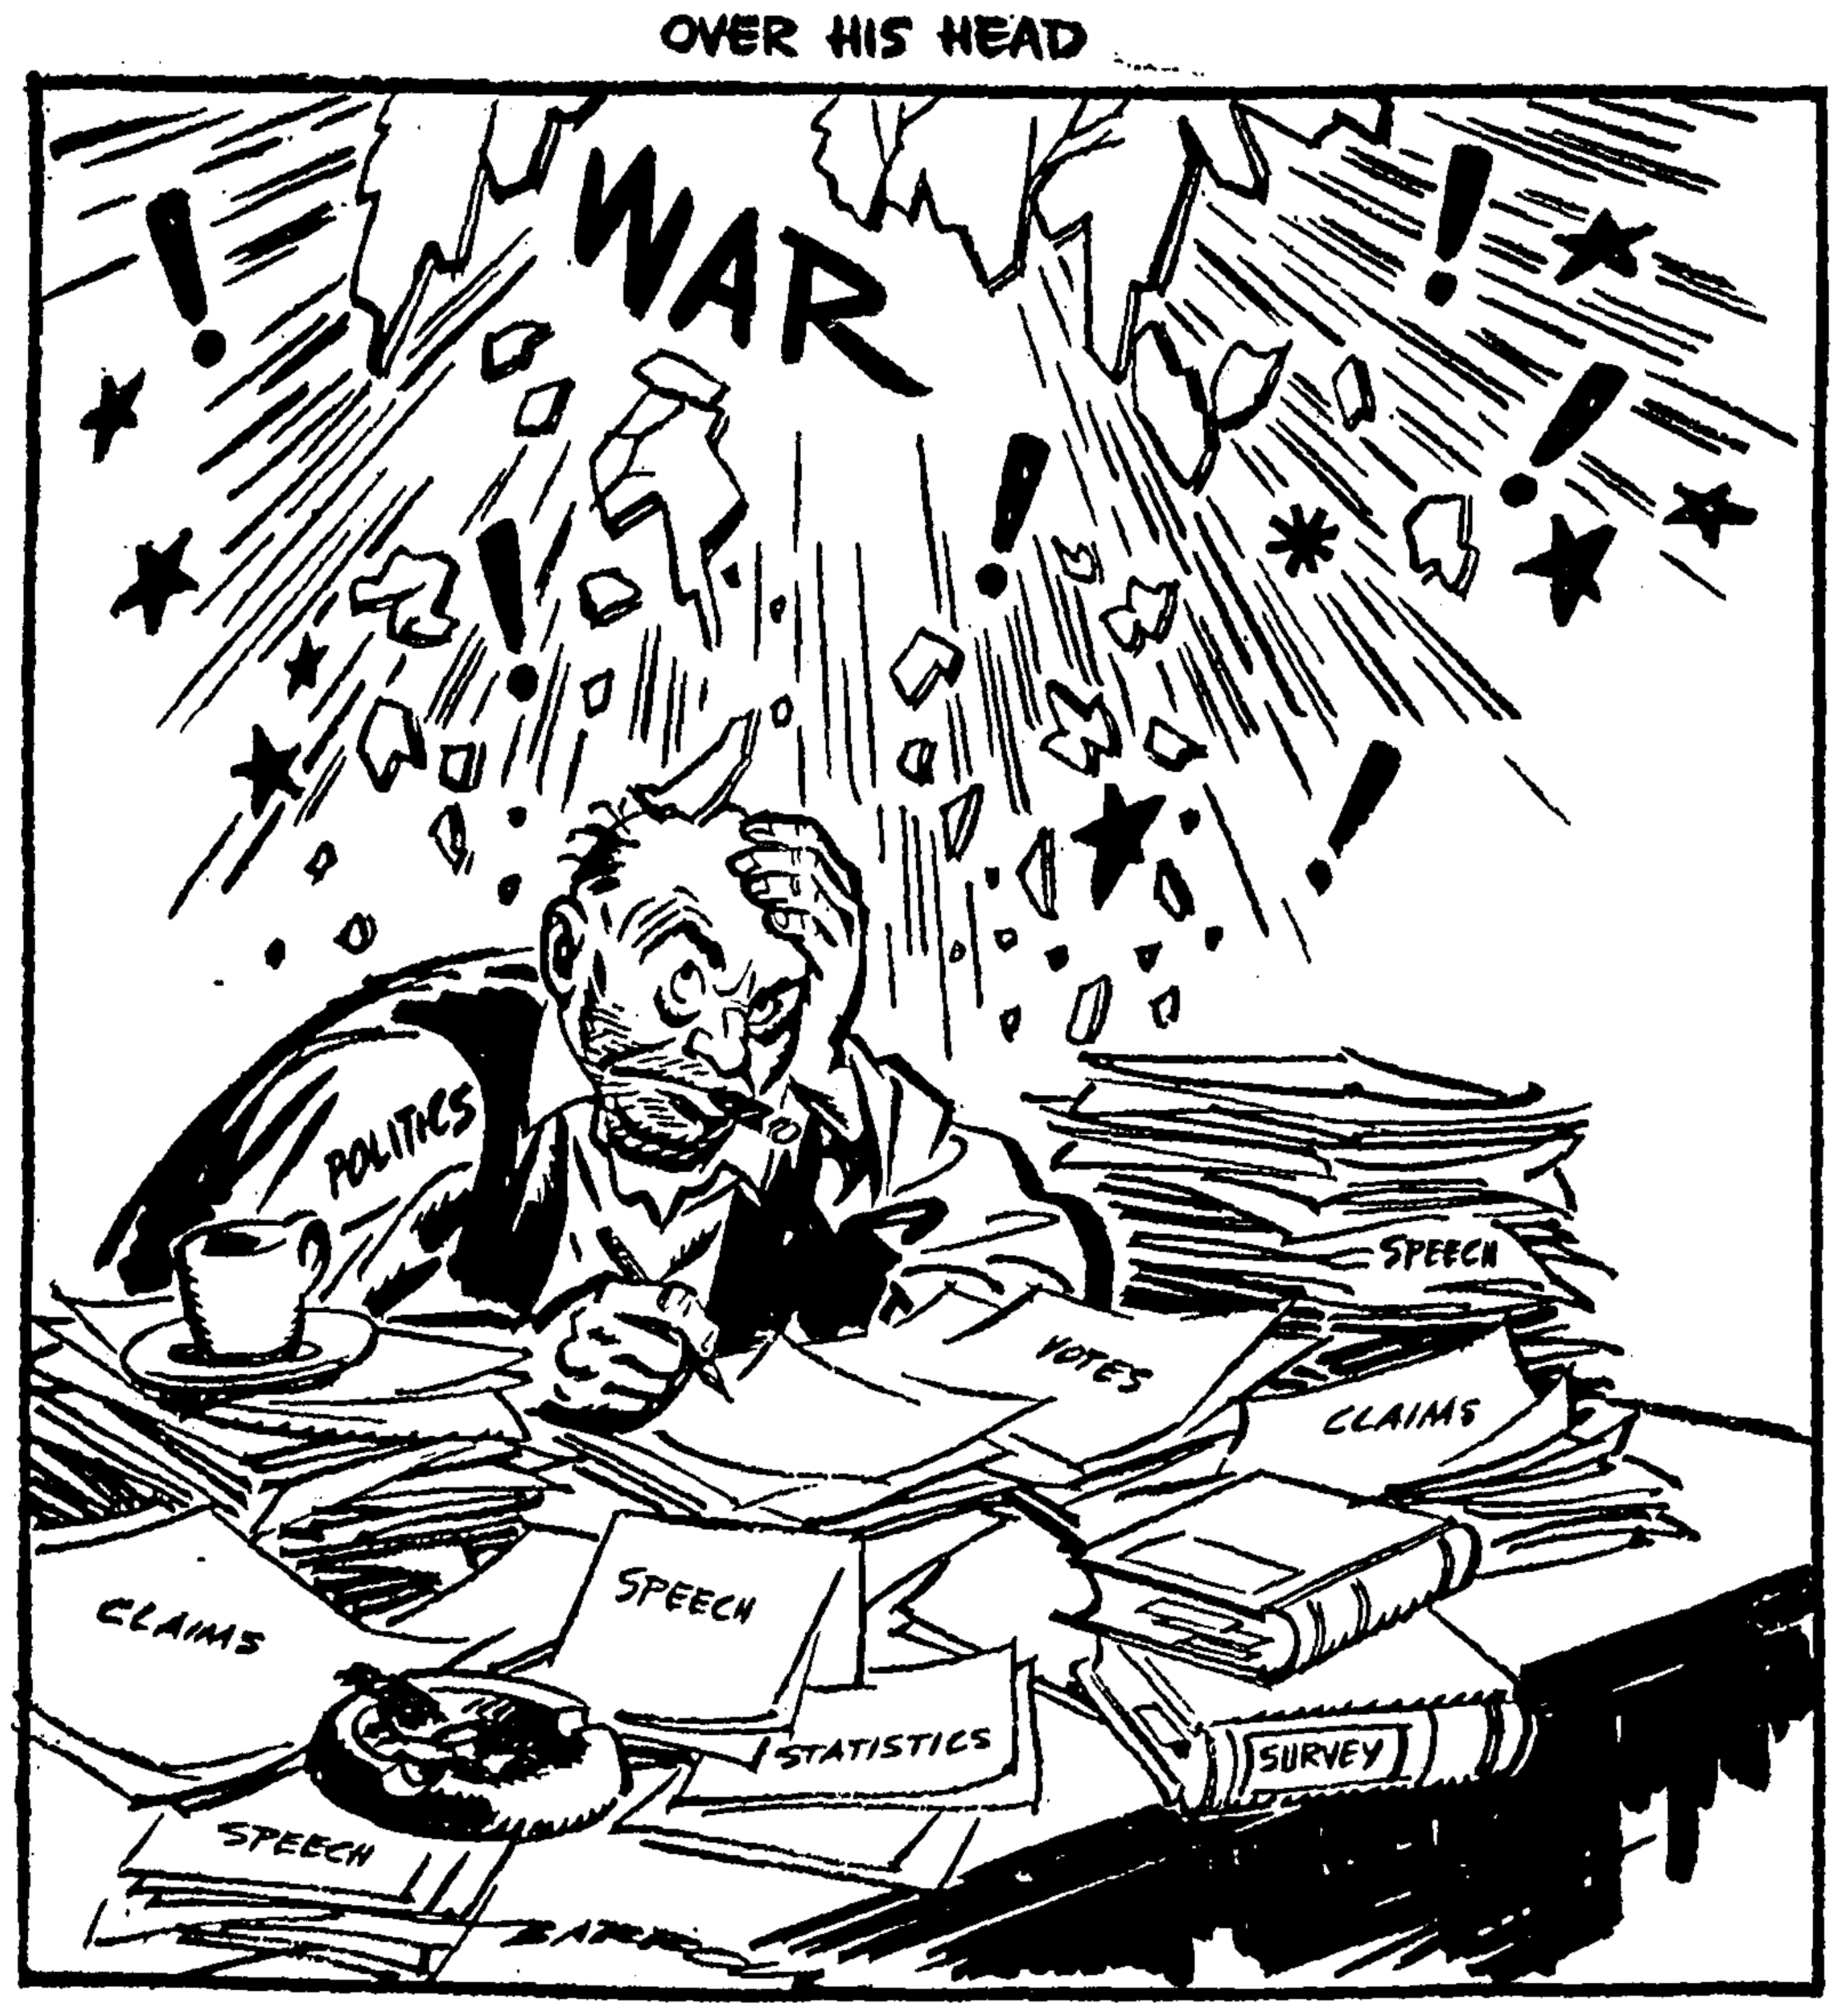
Oh, what is so rare as a night in June, with a million stars and a big round moon?

When the boys come marching home, don't spoil everything by asking them to go camping.

It's a lot of work and grief, chasing rats out of Normandy, but it helps to cleanse the world.

A savings bond, too, is a pleasant date with your own future.

OVER HIS HEAD



CORSICANA MAN PRISONER WAR JAPANESE GOVERNMENT BROADCASTS FROM·POW CAMP

Sgt. James B. Morris, 28, U. S. Army, now a prisoner of war of the Japanese, recently broadcast from his prison camp. The message was recorded by the U. S. government and a copy was sent a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Morris, 604 East Second avenue, Corsicana, by Lerch, acting provost general. It is believed here that this was one of the longest broadcasts ever allowed a prisoner of war by the Japanese.

At Corregidor.

Sgt. Morris had been in the army seven years when he was captured, May 7, 1942, when Corregidor fell.

Mrs. Morris, the sister-in-law of Sgt. Morris, said she will be allowed to write him 24 words per week. She sent a letter mentioning names of those included in the broadcast and also a package, August 7, 1943. Mr. and Mrs. Morris have received a number of messages from persons hearing the short wave broadcast including several recrodings. The telegram:

The Broadcast.

"I am well and feeling fine. I surely hope you are all well. I sure was glad to hear from you and was glad to hear that the baby was named after me. I sure would love to see you all. Please tell J. R. (Hockett) and family hello for me. I heard from (Foy) sure was a surprise. I was glad to get the package. Thanks a million. I also heard from Naomi. The following boys are with me here and are well and happy. Delbert Nolan of Mount Victory, Kentucky; Ralph Baskus of Durango, Colorado. Please notify their families. I am hoping and praying it won't be long before we will see one another again.

Don't Worry.

"Please don't worry about me I am doing fine. Please tell Raymond and Annie (sister and brother-in-law) and the kids hello. Glad to hear you are together again. Tell Mr. and Mrs. (Houston) Sellers I om looking forward to seeing them soon. Tell Ruth I am proud to have her for a sister-in-law. Am looking forward to spending my vacation with them. I hope Leona (sister-in-law) will not forget my special favorite. Tell Lawrence and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Swain hello for me. Tell Foy that some of these days I will surprise everyone by showing up around there in person.

"Tell Brother and Sister Rice to remember me in their prayers. Tell Ruth I certainly would love to get some pictures of you all. Don't forget Mary Evelyn and Clara Elizabeth. I would like to hear from Babe and his wife and from George and his wife. Tell Aunt Bonnie and children and Uncle Harvey and Aunt Naomi hello.

Message to Friends.

"I sure would love to see them all and hope to hear from them. Delbert Noland would love to say hello to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nolen of Vader, Washington, also to Major and all his friends at Vader. Navy Man Serving Pacific Area Reads Of Happenings Here

S-2C A. Y. Myers, U. S. Navy, Fleet post office, San Francisco, has written Sheriff Cap Curington that he recently saw in the newspaper of his Southwest Pacific outfit comments and information about a recent newspaper story released by the sheriff.

The story in question was that following the release of critical pamphlets of Allied censorship about the Normandy landings in France and that Sheriff Curington said had been traced to the prisoner of war camp in Mexia.

Myers worked for Fortson Bros. Grocery Company for several years before entering the U. S. Navy.

The Myers letter urged the purchase of more war bnods by everyone and stated that Alvis Lee O'Neal, also of Corsicana, was in his outfit in the Southwest Pacific area.

Syrians from Asia Minor settled on the Mediterranean shores of France 600 years before the Christian Era.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WOUNDED MARINE TELLS HOW JAPS DIG IN ON SAIPAN ISLE

By LEIF ERICKSON

A U. S. NAVY HOSPITAL, Oahu, June 29—(AP)—The first large detachment of wounded Marines from Saipan told today how the Japenese have literally dug themselves in on the Northern end of the island—and may just as literally have to be dug out.

The wounded said that American consideration for Japanese civilians during the early days of the bitter fighting had cost the Marianas invaders a considerable amount of casualties and trouble.

Pfc. Jack D Brown, 22, Omaha, Neb., said the Japanese had burrowed out a maze of caves and tunnels in Saipan's Northern mountains.

"It's hard to get the Japs out because 'they've dug down to deep,' said Brown.

"First our boys gave them grenades, then flame-throwers, then demolition bombs. They've burowed in so well it'l take a lot of pounding to clean them out.'

Others in the group of slightly-wounded interviewed by Pacific fleet headquarters correspondents today included Pfc. C. B. Blythe, 23, Sherman, Texas, pipefitter.

The tall, husky Blythe was put out of action, after several narow escapes, by a bullet in his right foot after a busy three days with a Browning automatic rifle.

On the first day he was with a reconnoitering platoon, half a mile ahead of a force advancing on Aslito airdrome, when Japanese snipers let go with hand grenades, wounding eight of his companions. He was unhurt.

Two days later Blythe was caught with a detachment in a valley swept by enemy fire from hills on both sides. "A bullet hit my repair kit on my cartridge belt and burned my skin," said Blythe. "That was close. Brother, I was scared."

Blythe finally was hit while holding a defensive line well to the rear.

Nazis May Use Poison Gas

MADRID, June 29—(AP)—The latest German propaganda for distribution in neutral countries hints obliquely that the Nazis may resort to the use of poison gas to combat the Allied invasion of France.

Pamphlets have been received here bearing the title "against invasion by North American beetles" and pointing out that beetles can be combatted by "chemical means."

"If beetles attempt to raze your fields, you would never hesitate to begin a war of arsenic and sulphuric gases,' said the pamphlets. 'Rather that millions and millions of North American beetles should die by asphyxiation than a single European potato be lost."

The city of Dieppe, France, existed in the Gallo-Roman era and in the middle ages possessed a large fleet.

SAMPSON TACKLES LIKAS IN N.C.A.A. SEMI-FINALS MATCH

EVANSTON, Ill., June 29.—(AP)—Charlie Sampson, sole tourney survivor of Notre Dame's team that finished the regular season undefeated, will try to salvage some prestige for the Irish today when he tackles Harry Likas, Gonzales freshman, in the first semi-championship at Northwestern University.

Two quarter-finals doubles matches, interrupted by rain yesterday, also are scheduled today. One pits Frank Willett and Howard McCall of Georgia Tech against Nick Buzolich and Gary Ruby of Pepperdine College (Los Angeles), while the other pairs off Sampson and Jerry Evert of Notre Dame against George Drulincr and Arnold Beisser of College of the Pacific.

Sampson emerged from the singles quarter-finals yesterday with a 6-2, 6-3 triumph over McCall. Likas adpanced to today's round by downing Buzolich, 6-3, 6-1.

Defending Champion Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador and the University of Miami, Fla., will meet Willett tomorrow in the other singles semi-finals. Doubles semi-finals also will be played Friday with finals in both competition set for Saturday.

Segura romped to 6-1, 6-3 victories over Stan Clark of California Tech yesterday, while Willett won his quarter-final match from John Hickman of Texas University, 6-4, 6-3.

Senior Golf Champ Contends He's Good

RYE, N. Y., June 29.—(AP)—Ellis Knowles, who is likely to become the first three-time winner of the United States seniors golf championship, contends that he is a better golfer now than when he was intercollegiate champion and quarter-finalist in the National Amateur tourney in 1907. The 57-year-old Knowles shot 71-74—145 to lead the first division of seniors over Apawamis course. He pointed out that in 1906, a 77 was a good enough score to win the intercollegiate qualifying medal. The second division of seniors will play today and tomorrow but none is expected to threaten Knowles' lead.

Capture of Kostritsa, eight miles north of the important railway junction of Borisov and about 50 miles northeast of Minsk, was announced by the communique. The fall of Borisov appeared imminent.

Capture of the railway junction of Osipovichi on the Minsk-Bobruisk line established a strong salient less than 70 miles southeast of Minsk.

Moscow said nazi troops were surrendering in large numbers and were being routed everywhere at a tremendous cost in German lives and equipment. Fighting for the capture of Lepel, above Kostrista and 42 miles south of Polotsk, was "characterized by mass annihilation of enemy manpower," the Soviet communique declared.

German Generals Captured.

Mogilev fell to Gen. Matvei Zakharov's Second White Russian army after 24 hours of bitter street fighting. In blasting the nazis out of the Dneper fortress they had held since July, 1941, the Russians captured two German generals, Lt. Gen. Bammler and Maj. Gen. Ermannsdorf, and routed completely the 12th German infantry division, a war bulletin said.

Capture of Lepel, announced in the communique, placed Gen. Ivan Bagramian's First Baltic army within 20 miles of the old Polish border. the closest approach by Soviet troops to the frontier in Northern Russia.

The Moscow communique also told of progress on the Finnish front, reporting enemy troops cleared from an island in the Gulf of Finland southwest of Viipuri, and an advance of 19 miles made between Lakes Ladoga and Onezhskoe (Onega.)

Yesterday's fighting on the 250-mile eastern front, the Russians said, resulted in the capture of more than 1,000 populated places, bringing the announced total liberated thus for in the new offensive to approximately 5,000.

When the Republican convention ended, nominees Thomas E. Dewey and John W. Bricker went to a hotel ballroom with their wives.

All four stood in line. The crowd flowed in—hundreds of people. Thousands.

They drank the punch and ate cookies, hung over the balconies to see a little better, and formed into a six-abreast line winding around the huge room

The Deweys and the Brickers, smiling and nodding and exchanging greetings with all comers, had a marathon handshake. If their hands are not big as suit cases, it's a wonder.

Wearing suspenders but no coat, the Rev. M. J. Doam of Chicago said: "I think it's a thrill to shake the hand of men honored like that. But I won't vote for them. I'm a Democrat myself.'

Then there was Charles Lane, a Republican from Dayton, O. He said he felt "inspired" exchanging face-to-face greetings with the candidates.

Just then a young woman in red rushed up, looked at the mob edging forward at a clam's pace, and said:

"Just imagine. They want to tell their grandchildren they shook hands with Dewey and Bricker. I'd like to tell my grandchildren the same thing if I ever have grandchildren, but not if I have to stand in line to do it.'

FREE PRESS AND RADIO GUARANTEED BY GOP PLATFORM

By The Associated Press.

A new development in party platforms is the republinan proposal designed to insure a free press and radio.

Following are salient points of this plank:

"It is imperative to the maintenance of a free America that the press and radio be free and that full and complete information be available to Americans....

"We insistently condemn any tendency to regard the press or the radio as instruments of the administration and the use of government publicity agents for partisan ends. We need a new radio law which will define, in clear and unmistakable language, the role of the federal communications commission.

"All channels of news must be kept open with equality of access to information at the source. If agreement can be achieved with foreign nations to establish the same principles, it will be a valuable contribution to future peace."

NEW ANTI-AIRCRAFT GIANT BEING USED BY UNITED STATES

ERIE PROVING GROUNDS, LaCarne, O., June 29.—(AP)—Capable of out-reaching the highest-flying bombers, a new anti-aircraft giant is being used by the United States army to clear the skies of enemy planes.

Army ordnance experts at this Lake Erie testing grounds today took the wraps from the 120 millimeter anti-aircraft cannon, bigger by far than any other similar armament known.

Newsmen saw a demonstration of the 30-ton mobile monster, with a potential firing rate of 12 shells a minute. Newest feature of the mogul is an automatic rammer, which sets a 50-pound shell in the breech, adjusts its fuse and rams home a semi-fixed charge of powder.

Assembled in Grand Rapids, Mich., the gun costs more than $100,000 per unit, Col. R. E. Rundell asserted. Proof-firing and testing of the gun was begun several months ago.

Biggest army anti-aircraft weapon previously used was a 90 millimeter gun which sent a projectile less than half the size of that fired in the new unit to a height of about 45,000 feet.

Vote Against Prison Labor

FORT WORTH, June 29.—(AP)—Grain elevator officials in Fort Worth today noon voted against the use of German prisoners of war in the unloading of wheat from hundreds of box cars bringing the first portion of the pumper Texas and Oklahoma crop to this terminal market.

They expressed the belief it would give the Germans too much of a chance at sabotage.

Meanwhile 20 marines at the Eagle Mountain Lake air station vovlunteered to shovel the grain tonight.

COMMITTEE NAMED MEET WITH DEWEY ON GOP CHAIRMAN

CHICAGO, June 29—(AP)—The newly elected Republican National committee named a committee of six today to confer with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey on his choice for a new Natnonal chairman to run his campaign for the Presidency. The full committee will meet again tomorrow morning.

Col. R. B. Creagor of Texas, was named ex-officio chairman of the six-member group. Other members: J. Russel Sprague, New York; Ezra R. Whitla Idaho; Werner W. Schroeder, Illinois; Mrs. Horace A. Sayre, Oklahoma, and Mrs. Katharine K. Brown, Ohio.

Although the name of Herbert Brownell, Jr., New York lawyer and Dewey's gubernatorial campaign manager in 1938 and 1942, was the most prominent discussed for the National committee chairmanship, members said a definite decision is still up to Dewey.

Dewey told a news conference he wants to consult further with his running mate, John W. Bricker, before deciding upon a chairman.

Harrison E Spangler, present chairman who was elected in December, 1942, would not say how he expected to figure in the coming campaign; many of his friends were urging his retention.

Farley Says Will Remain Democrat

DALLAS, June 29—(AP)—Former Democratic National committee chairman James A. Farley planned to leave today for St. Louis enroute to New York, following a business trip to Mexico City.

In an interview with a Dallas News reporter yesterday, Farley declined to comment on Republican Presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey except to say he had been a good Governor of New York state.

Farley said he would remain in the Democratic party because 'now and in the future, I want to be helpful to my party, my city and country."

Husband Former Corsicana Girl Tells About Rome

A recent letter to Mrs. Guy I. Warren of Corpus Christi, the former Miss Gazzie Suttle of this city, from her husband, Lieut. Col. Warren, who is now a member of the Allied Military Commission in Italy, describes his entrance into the "Eternal City" in an interesting manner as follows:

"You, of course, know that I am now in Rome, the Eternal City. My trip in here was a great experience. At about midnight our convoy left the little town where we had ben stationed. The night was a beautiful moonlight one but much too cold for comfort. I was perched upon the front seat of a weapons-carrier, and, although I was dressed in woolens and had on my field jacket, I felt as though I would freeze. We followed in the wake of the divisions which had pushed out from te beachhead. We passed trough several small towns and one quite large one. The destruction was everywhere and plainly visible in the bright moonlight. The most destrution was in a town of about 30,000 population, prior to the war. Not a livivng thing was left, except the MP's who were grinding the traffic through it. Practically all the buildings were destroyed, beyond any hope of repair."

Unburied Dead

"At intervals along the road, the frequent odors of the unburied dead filled the air. As we approached the mountainous area before the city, the sound of the guns became plainly audible. By the time the first streaks of dawn were breaking, we had reached the outskirts of the city, and at five we drove beneath Mussolini's balcony, from which he delivered his tirades to the populace. It certainly is anything but an imposing balcony."

"The streets were practically deserted, but thousands of people waved from the windows. The people had gone to sleep under the Geman nine-o'clock curfew and had awakened to find that while they slept the Germans had moved out and the Allies were streaming in. It appeared to be only a matter of minutes before the almost-deserted sidewalks became a seething mass of humanity. They spilled out into the streets, and many tried to climb into the car. A major was scared stiff for a minute. He, like all of us, was tense as a G-string anyway, due to the possibility of snipers. There was considerable sniping, but none of it directed at the Allies. It was confined exclusively to the settling of old scores among the Italians themselves.

"After making a brief tour about some of the downtown streets, we went to our pre-disignated bivouac area in a large park near the Tiber. Machine guns rattled at a lively clip along the river, while the rtillery threw shells over our head into the retreating Germans. The day slipped quickly by, but the hub-hub of an Italian holiday commingled with our feverish haste to get our organization functioning, along with being up all night, made a comfortable bed indeed out of my cot, and my tent, which had the grass for its floor and the trees and skies for its ceiling, a cozy bower. In spite of the guns and a couple of sorties by enemy planes, which brought forth a great hullabaloo from the ack-ack boys, I got a splendid night's sleep."

Automobile Use Stamps Must Be On Cars July 1st

W. A. Thomas, collector of internal revenue for the second collection district of Texas, Dallas, announces that instructions have been forwarded to all zone deputy internal revenue collectors in the 144th North Texas counties comprising his district to be on the alert for automobiles in use on and after July 1, 1944, without having properly affixed and displayed the automobile use stamp for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1944. The stamps evidence payment of the $5 automobile use tax for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1944, and must be purchased on or before that date. The stamps are serially numbered, will be gummed on the face and will have provision on the back for entry of the make, model serial number and state license number of the vehicle. A fine of $25 and or a jail sentence of up to 30 days is provided by law for failure to purchase and display the stamp properly on the vehicle.

Every owner of a motor vehicle which is used upon the highways should call at his local postoffice to secure the $5 use tax stamp and affix it to his vehicle on or before July 1, 1944, the collector said. The various postoffices will sell the stamps over the counter for cash only, and no money order business with respect thereto will be conducted by the postoffices. Sale of the less than $5 denomination use tax stamps in postoffices has been discontinued. Such offices will stock the $5 stamp only and motor vehicles owners liable for the payment of the use tax for periods of less than a full year must obtain their stamps in lesser denominations from the collector of internal revenue. This would occur when use of the car begins in some month of the fiscal year after July.

The use stamp should be placed in the lower right hand corner of the windshield. The collector said that in order to guard against loss or theft it has been suggested that in affixing the stamp, the windshield itself should be dampened rather than the adhesive side of the stamp. This method is recommended in order to keep the stamp intact upon the windshield. In addition, it is suggested that each motor vehicle owner should make a record of the serial number appearing on the use tax stamp for protection in the event the stamp becomes lost.

Miss Ann Blakeney of San Angelo arrived home Monday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Blakeney.

To The Voters of Navarro County

Do you realize that the State of Texas is 102 years old, and that if you elected a man to office every 4 years (2 terms, which is democratic), in 102 years you would have elected only 25 men as Sheriff of this county. Each would have received $19,000 during his 4-year term The present sheriff has held 5 terms or 10 years, and has been paid under the present set-up $47,500.00, a mighty big slice of the tax-payers' money to be allotted one man.

It is the power of the voters to bestow the offices of their government upon deserving fellow citizens. Democratic precedent has decreed that these positions, whether national, state or county, shall be rotated regularly.

Don't you in a fair-minded way believe that there is more than one man in Navarro County who could make you a good Sheriff if given a chance?

OUR CONGRESSMAN

Luther A. Johnson

Opposes F. E. P. C.

Here Is How He Voted

My Record in Opposing F. E. P. C.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

HON LUTHER A. JOHNSON

of Texas

In the House of Representatives

"MR. LUTHER A JOHNSON, Mr. Speaker, I understand the Committee on Labor is now conducting hearings on the Scanlon bill H. R. 3986) to make permanent the socalled Fair Employment Practice Committee, commonly referred to as F. E. P. C. I desire to go on record as being utterly opposed to any such legislation and expect to fight it with all the force at my command.

I think the committee would better serve the public interest and the unity now so much needed in the war effort if it would abandon any such effort and announce to the Congress and the country that the States and local governments are ready, willing, and able to fairly and equitably adjust all problems regarding fair employment of their citizens.

The present agitation is incubating and promoting race feeling and prejudice rather than discouraging it. The people of the South are a just and fair people. In my section white and colored people have lived and worked together in harmony and contentment for many years under existing segregation laws which must not be changed. If the uplifters and bureaucrats will leave us alone, we will work out the problem in fairness and justice to all.

I also oppose and bitterly resent the procedure recently resorted to in this House to tack the so-called F. E. P. C. as a rider on to a necessary and essential war appropriation bill, I protest the parliamentary tactics employed. Same was confusing and calculated to mislead the reading public. Some newspapers of high standing carried stories that did not reflect the true situation. I spoke with vigor against that item and voted against it at every opportunity.

I was one of thos who demanded a roll call record vote on the Tarver amendment which was denied. I stil hope the Senate will strike out F. E. P. C. and I will continue to work and vote against it if the bill comes to the House.

The remarks which I made in the House denouncing F. E. P. C. just before the Tarver amendment was voted on to deny it any funds was as follows:

Mr. LUTHER A. JOHNSON. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

MR. TARVER. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

MR. LUTHER A. JOHNSON. I think the gentleman from Georgia has made a very excellent statement. I shall vote for his amendment to strike out the entire appropriation for the Committee on Fair Employment Pracice. I think this organization has committed some violent abuses and, as the gentleman says, has rendered a disservice, and created a disunity in time of war. In addition to specific instances of meddling cited, I have in mind the instance of the Dallas News, wherein the Dallas News advertised, "Wanted: Colored man." And this organization, the Committee on Fair Employment Practice, took that up with the Dallas News and said they had no right to use the word 'colored" in an advertisement, that it was discriminatory as to race and demanded that this ad should not be used. The News wanted a colored man, and not a white man, for a particular job; but they must not so advertise for fear of offending the colored race. An agency which has no more sense than that should be abolished. (P. 5121, Congressional Record, May 26, 1944)

Speaking of fair practice, I want the record to show, and every Member of this House will bear me witness, that I was one of those who voted to strike out the F. E. P. C. item when we lost by four votes, and yet certain persons with selfish interest, oposed to me in my district, are deliberately seeking to misrepresent my record and leave the impression that I voted for the F. E. P. C. There is not one word of truth in this statement and the voters will not be deceived by any such unfair practice or tactics. The people I represent believe in and practice fair play.

I did, on final pasage, vote for the war appropriation bill which caried over a billion dollars for 18 essential war agencies, and made funds available for our fighting men all over the world, the major part of which was for ships to transport our armed forces and take their supplies. The vote on the war appropriation bill was 247 for and 58 against. Judge Tarver of Georgia, the author of the amendment to strike F. E. P. C. from the bill, and who led the fight, was one of those who voted as I did, as did a majority of those who voted for the Tarver amendment. I am proud of that vote for the war appropriation bill and willing to defend it. I also take pride in my record of having supported the war policies, and the appropriations to carry them out 100 percent. This course I shall continue to pursue until the war is won and peace is restored. I shall continue to place the necessities of war above every other consideration. I shall continue to work and vote for returning service men and women and help to see to it that they are provided with hospitalization, compensation, employment, and education. I was one of those who gave active support to the recent G. I. bill which was sponsored by the American Legion.

When the armistice comes, as we all hope and pray it will soon. I shall devote my best efforts to the adoption of a treaty insuring, if posible, an enduring peace.

I am one of those who believe that had we followed the advice of Woodrow Wilson, our boys would not now be fighting in every corner of the world. I want to make certain this time that the boys of the next generation do not have to undergo the same experience. I am ranking member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs Furthermore, under appointment by Secretary of State, Cordell Hull, I served for many months on a committee who have been working on a post-war foreign policy My experiences on both these committees will enable me to make a contribution in planning for a just and lasting peace. This I would prefer to do above all else."

TEMPLE SOLDIER IS DECORATED AND LOCAL MAN ALSO MENTIONED

LOUIS W. TRIADO REPAIRED GERMAN GUN AND TURNED IT ON ENEMY

WASHINGTON, June 27.—(Spl.)—All his friends agree that Staff Sgt. Robert L. Chudej, infantryman from Route 2, Temple, Texas, has done his part in this war. He had won the Distinguished Service Cross and the Combat Infantryman Badge in action against the enemy.

Nevertheless, Sgt. Churej doesn't believe he has done all he should.

"I'll go back when they need me," he said in a war department interview shortly after his return to this country. "I'm experienced. I can help. We need experienced men over there."

Thre is no question about his experience. He and nine other infantrymen held the top of a hill in Italy against a strong counter-attack, killing 13 of the enemy and capturing 17; then, reinforced, they beat off a second assault, killing five more.

Churej, then sergeant of a heavy machine gun section, said the Yanks had taken the crest of Mt. Sammeuro near San Pietra by driving the Germans down the side of the mountain. Most of the Americans withdrew, leaving Sgt. Churej and his nine men to defend the crest.

An hour later, at 6 a. m., when dawn was well advanced, the Germans staged a counter-attack.

"We used everything we could lay our hands on to fight them off," said Churej. "We had rifles and machine guns and grenades of several kinds. They kept on coming. A corporal, one of my best men, was wounded in the head by a potato masher grenade and another man was shot by a rifle in the back. That left eight of us able to fight."

Called Him Dynamite.

The corporal was Russell E. Morrison, McComb, O., who is now a staff sergeant, still fighting in Italy. "He's a little fellow, about 5 feet 5, weights about 135 pounds, but believe me he can fight. We called his 'Dynamite.' or 'Buckeye.' He didn't mant to quit but we made him," said Chudej.

"We hung over the edge of the rocks and sprayed the hillside with bullets and dropped grenades down the slope. We didn't know how many there were, and we must have killed a lot of them, but they kept coming.

"Finally I decided the only thing to do was to charge them. So the eight of us, yelling and shooting, hopped down the side of the hill. One stood up and surrendered. He was a Pole. One of our boys could speak Polish and talked to him.

"Then 10 more gave up. They put up their hands and yelled 'Kamerad.' We took them back to the top of the hill and figured that was all."

It was not all, however, because at that moment a machine pistol began firing at them from the pillbox they had not noted before. Then two machine guns started firing from the pillbox.

In Tough Spot.

"We were in kind of a tough spot," the infantryman admitted. "We had used most of our ammunition in the first hour.

"We worked around the rocks to get close to the pillbox and threw grenades at it. We would throw one grenade, then four or five rocks, then another grenade.

"Six krauts surrendered to us there. We had killed one in the pillbox and the others gave up. One was an officer and there was a first sergeant among them who had lived in England. He said we were sure using some poor grenades. He said about half of them were duds. We never told him we had been throwing rocks."

The officer, Churej said, had been directing German artillery from his position.

Corsicana Man.

One of the German machine guns was in workable condition. Private First Class Louis W. Triado, Corsicana, Texas, began tinkering with it.

"Triado is a good man," said Sgt. Churej. "He's now a sergeant, still over there somewhere. He was always good at tinkering with things. He got the gun in operation. There was plenty of German ammunition, so we were set for trouble if it came.

"Meanwhile, we had 17 prisoners and our two wounded men. We got some German rifles and rigged some of their blankets across them to make litters. Then we put a German at each end of the rifles and sent one of our men with them down the hill. It took them half a day to reach our lines.

"Pretty soon a squad of riflemen led by a lieutenant came up the hill and reinforced us. It was a good thing, too. About 3 p. m. the krauts made a second counter-attack. We held them off easily that time. Killed five of them. Triado killed some with their own bullets."

Decorated.

Infantryman Churej's commanding general awarded him the Distinguished Service Cross for his defense of Mt. Sammeuro. He fought with the 36th Infantry Division through a good part of the Italian camapign.

Churej comes from a farm family. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Shurej. He planned to spend his furlough in Temple with his family and friends. After that he will be ready to fight again if Uncle Sam needs him in the front lines.

"When I go back, I want to go to the same outfit—they're fighters," he said.

NATIVE OF NAVARRO COUNTY, NAVY PILOT MISSING IN ACTION

Ensign Ralph DeWitt McAfee, 24, U. S. Navy, native of Emmett, Navarro county, pilot of a Navy Hellcat fighter plane, is missing in action in the South Pacific since May 5, acording to a notice in a Compton, Calif., newspaper received by his uncle, I. D. McAfee of Corsicana. The missing Navy flier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Travis DeWitt McAfee of Comton, Calif., who were reared in the Emmett community.

The missing flier's wife was not notified of the message from the Navy department until two weeks after the birth of a son, May 18.

A graduate of Graham High School at the age of 15 years, McAfee enlisted in the Navy at the age of 17 years in 1936. After training at San Diego, he went on to the Battleship Colorado and later made a chief's rating on the Idaho, later helping convoy soldiers to Iceland and Greenland and aiding in the rescue of the crew of the Reuben James.

Made a gunner on Navy observation planes, he had gone down on seven planes, with three of his pilots killed, but had only been injured twice. After his Atlantic duty, young McAfee shifted to the Pacific for three months, made one trip with the aircraft carrier Wasp, and saw it sunk.

In November, 1942, McAfee entered Navy Pre-flight School at Athens, Ga., in preparation for his wings. He had 1,600 flying hours to his credit, and had finished the CAA primary training course in California. After going to New Orleans and Pensacola, he was assigned to the F6F planes and completed further training in Alabama and Florida. He shipped overseas last Christmas.

In letters to his parents, according to the article, he had downed several Japanese planes, and was soon scheduled to be promoted to a junior lieutenancy.

Former Navarro County Teacher Weds in Maryland

Lt. Wallace M. Morris, former teacher at Emhouse and Blooming Grove, was married June 25, to Miss Evelyn Irene Sherman of Baltimore, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph M. Sharpe, pastor of the Cavalry Methodist church of Mt Airy, Md., according to a letter received from Lt. Morris by his friend, County Commissioner Drew Gillen. Lt. Morris recently returned from his third voyage overseas.

Dear Friends:

Due to the fact that I am physically and financially unable to call on you in person to solicit your vote and influence in my campaign for the office of County Treasurer, I take this method of calling on you. I am now 62 years of age and have been totally blind for the past 12 years, and have no visible means of support other than to eke out a mere existence; however, I have the same responsibility in trying to live as those who are blest beyond measure with their eye sight and good health.

It has been a custom for the past several years for the voters of Navarro County to elect some worthy and needy person to the office of County Treasurer. I want to always feel that I am earning my support and if you will help me to help myself by leaving my name on the ticket on July 22nd, I shall ever be grateful to you, and if elected in the performance of the duties of County Treasurer, I shall strive always to merit the confidence you have placed in me.

Sincerely
JOE E DANIEL

AND HERE ARE 5 EXTRA REASONS FOR BUYING MORE BONDS IN THE 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds will assure the funds to replace worn-out farm equipment, machinery, and buildings.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

THE crucial hour is at hand . . .

Right now, Uncle Sam needs the help of every fighting American both at home and abroad—more than at any time since the war started.

The boys in uniform are doing O.K. Ask Adolph and Tojo! Workers in our industrial plants are turning out the planes and guns and tanks on schedule. Farmers and ranchers are breaking records in food production, despite handicaps.

But when it comes to buying War Bonds to pay for all this, we've got a job to do—the biggest job of its kind in all our history.

Uncle Sam can't go on supplying our fighting men with the tools they need and must have to win this war unless the money is there to pay for it. The money must come from the people—from YOU. And because war costs are mounting higher than ever before, we must buy MORE BONDS than ever before.

There'll be a Victory Volunteer at your door during the 5th War Loan . . . a neighbor who is taking time from his work to help Uncle Sam raise the money needed to finance this war. Don't turn him down. Don't ask him to come back some other time. Don't . . . of all things . . . tell him you can't afford more Bonds. Make up your mind now that you're going to BUY MORE THAN BEFORE . . . Uncle Sam is depending on our boys over there and they're not letting him down. We at home have the same responsibility! BUY MORE THAN BEFORE!

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 29.—(AP)—Demand centered on specialties in today's stock market while many recently speedy performers tripped over light selling and most leaders suffered from lack of attention.

The fact that the Associated Press 60-stock average had touched a peak for nearly seven years inspired conservaitism among the most rabid bulls. The idea was that further technical correction was likely and that speculative and investment commitments might well be postponed to await this reaction.

Blocks of 15,000 Willys-Overland and 18,000 Hayes Mfg. crowded the ticker tape in the first hour, the former on the off-side and the latter a gainer. The pace slackened later although turnover for the full session ran to around 1,700,000 shares. Near closing trend were mixed.

Highs for 1944 or longer, with advances of fractions to more than 3 points, were recorded for Thompson-Starrett common and preferred, American Telephone, United Corp. preferred, Pullman, Hayes Mfg., Sparks Withington, Budd Wheel, Budd Mfg., Murray Corp., York Corp. and R-K-O. Ahead at intervals were U. S. Steel, Crucible Steels Westinghouse, Sears Roebuck and Eastman Kodak. Backward were Chrysler, General Motors, Stnta Fe, Bethlehem, Anaconda, U. S. Rubber and Certain-Teed preferred.

WORK STOPPAGE AT HUGHES TOOL CO., IS EXPECTED TO END

HOUSTON, June 29—(AP)—The work stoppage at Hughes Tool company probably will end today as the result of conferences under way between officials of United Steelworkers of America (CIO) locals and the company.

The steelworkers voted yesterday to return to work provided the company rehires without prejudice the men engaged in a work stoppage since last Friday.

The union's grievance committee and Thomas M Mobley, Hughes' industrial relations director, met this morning to arrange resumption of work. Union officials said the men probably would return to work this afternoon.

Yesterday the National War Labor Board ordered the men back to work and denied the company's request for a rehearing on a WLB order requiring maintenance of union membership.

Pipeline Break In East Part of City

Several hundred barrels of oil were lost in East Corsicana on East Fifth avenue Monday about 4 p. m. when a Texas Company 8-inch pipeline broke, according to Fire Chief H. P. Bivin.

The oil soaked a large area in the neighborhood of the break, the fire chief said, causing a considerable fire hazard. The fire department washed the oil from about the house into the creek and downstream to remove the chance of a serious blaze, the fire chief added.

The line was said to have been repaired Tuesday.

titive products designed to assure American standards.

"The essence of the plank is to be found in the latter part," Dewey said. "The party promises that thas nation will work with other nations to promote greater trade. This is not inconsistent with the tariff part of the plank."

Foreign Policy.

Questioned closely about his views on postwar foreign policy, Dewey said he did not believe the United States should surrender its "sovereign right to make war" to any international organization.

"The sovereign power to make war is primarily a defensive power on our part," he declared. "We have never fought any offensive war."

"How about the Mexican war?" a reporter asked.

"That depends on your interpretation," he said.

The nominee defended state regulation of insurance companies at length, and promised a negro reporter that he would live up to his oath to enforce the 13th and 14th amendments if he is elected.

As to Germany.

A reporter cited a passage from Dewey's acceptance speech that said Germany's will to fight again at some future time must be broken. He asked Dewey how he would do it.

"That will develop during the campaign," the nominee responded. "Three different plans have been suggested to me. A lot will depend on when Germany surrenders."

He did not discuss the "three plans."

When Dewey was asked whether he thought the GOP platform ruled out an international police force, he shot gack at his questioner:

"What do you mean by an international police force?"

The reporter said he meant a force to which the various nations would contribute troops. Dewey replied:

"If you mean an army with American soldiers, directed by some dismebodied spirit, as a world agency, I would say that was ruled out."

Will Consult Bricker.

In discussing the campaign organization, Dewey made it clear that he will consult Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, the vice presidential candidate, before making final decisions.

"Will Willkie be invited to take part in your strategy conferences?" he was asked.

"So far we have consulted only with members of the national committee, but later there will be consultations with others," Dewey said.

"Does that include Willkie?"

"Certainly."

Dewey also replied "certainly I will" when asked whether he would continue as governor of New York while campaigning for the presidency.

Will Elaborate Later.

The nominee was asked to tell how he would carry out his acceptance speech promise to provide full employment.

"I will elaborate on that later," he said.

Failure of the platform to mention the St. Lawrence seaway project should not be taken to mean, he said, that the Republican party necessarily opposes the project. He said a desire to hold the platform to shortest length pracicable made it impossible to include many worthwhile projects.

Questioners returned several times to Dewey's acceptance speech pledge to gather the "ablest men possible" around him.

Asked whether he would advocate and modification of the securities-exchange law, Dewey said:

One of Best Acts.

"By and large, I think the SEC one of the best things the present administration has done. As to its administration, the SEC has not done its best to stimulate the flow of capial."

The governor ruled out as "hypothetical" a question whether he would accept a third term as president, if the occasion arose, but stood on his former statement that:

"The third term is destructive of everything good in the American tradition."

Dewey expressed the opinion that federal aid will have to be given to bolster re-employment in the postwar transition period but said he believed the problem must be met chiefly by private enterprise.

He replied affirmatively to a question whether he believed the party platform presumes establishment of a World Court after the war.

As to Gasoline Rationing.

Asked whether he was satisfied "with the present gasoline ration program." Dewey grinned and asked:

"Do you know anybody who is?"

Up early after a reception in which he, Mrs. Dewey and Gov. and Mrs. John W. Bricker of Ohio shook hands with thousands of persons, the Republican ticket leader breakfasted in his suite with his running mate.

From there he arranged to make a short appearnce before members of the Republicn national committee, meeting in the hotel across the street from his quarters in the Stevens. He scheduled his first news conference since his nomination a short time later.

The Dewey agenda also included a conference with former President Herbert Hoover and other party leaders during the day.

He will emain in Chicago tomorrow, probably deaving for Albany some time Saturday.

As the footweary convention crowds headed homeward, all signs pointed toward evolvement of a organized and unified drive between now and November.

Dissension All Gone

What dissension there was appeared to melt away like a snowball under the hot Chicago sun when Gov. John E. Bricker of Ohio agreed to become Dewey's running mate, instead of his chief contender for top honors, and accepted the vice Presidential nomination.

The two clasped hands on the convention stadium platform and exchanged remarks of mutual admiration and confidence in victory.

Typical of the resulting jubilant comments was that of Senator Clyde Reed of Kansas, who said:

"We've got not only a match for Roosevelt but a master on the platform to carry the fight to him on his own front."

Youth against age was the predominant theme of Dewey's acceptance speech as he set out to follow Franklin D. Roosevelt's trial from the executive mansion in Albany to the White House via the Chicago nominating conventions. Mr. Roosevelt, too, flew to this city to accept the high honor in 1932.

The 42 year old former racketbuster, in his opening statement to the American electorial jury last night, promised that "next year our government will again have a cabinet of the ablest men and women to be found in America'"

"Its members' he declared, "will expect and will receive full delegation of the powers of their office. They will be capable of administering those powers. They will each be experienced in the task to be done and young enough to do it."

The task of achieving a lasting peace, he declared, "is no task to be entrusted to stubborn men, grown old and tired and quarrelsome in office."

Three Terms Too Many

"It seems," he declared, "that the great men who founded this nation really knew what they were talking about when they said that three terms were too many."

A middle course between international aloofness and full membership in any world state was advocated by the shaggy-browed 1944 standard bearer on the touchy foreign policy issue.

"We are agreed, all of us," he said, "that America will participate with other sovereign nations in a cooperative effort to prevent future wars."

"There are only a very few," he added, "who really believe that America should try to remain aloof from the world. There are only a relatively few who believe it would be practical for America or her allies to renounce all sovereignty and join a super-state."

Senator Taft Pleased

Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, chairman of the platform committee, told reporters: "He stands on the platform 100 per cent."

Dewey made these other points:

1. The first and foremost job is to win the war, and to defeat "once and for all" the German and Japanese will to make war.

2. The present military high command is "doing a superb job" and should be allowed to continue without any civilian interference.

3. The administration now is beset by internal squabbles and feuds —"wrangling, bungling and confusion ' In seven pre-war years of "unequalled power and unparalled spending, the New Deal failed uterly to solve" the fundamental problem of providing jobs and opportunity. It has lived in "chattering fear of abundance," specializing in curtailment and restriction."

4. "This must be a land where every man and woman has a fair chance to work and get ahead—we Republicans are agreed that full employment shall be a first objective of National policy'" democracy in little more than name only since Ryti, Linkomies and Foreign Minister Sir Henrik Ramsay accepted Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop's proposals for full military collaboration with the Germans without consulting parliament. Some advices said the decision would have met a resounding defeat if it had been submitted to parliament.

The Germans turned Helsinki into a parade ground when the Finnish government announced officially that Von Ribbentrop had sent troops in response to a Finnish appeal and that a "perfect understanding" had been reached between Finland and the reich.

Despite the Nazi show of strength in the Finnish capital, Sturdivant said there was a feeling in Helsinki that the Germans were sending only token aid and nothing like the nine divisions Von Ribbentrop reportedly had promised.

(A London broadcast said a German pocket battleship and two cruisers "are said to have arrived off Helsinki and there are German infantry and tanks in the city where only a few Finnish forces remain.") tled with fury to stem American forces slowly wedging them into the northern neck of Saipan island.

Marines and infantrymen advancing up both coasts of Saipan got strong support from U. S. naval and air forces which struck at the Kuriles north of Japan, at the Marianas and the Carolines. Among the specific targets were Guam, Rota, Paramushiro, Shumushu, Tinian and Truk. Enemy air attacks against American warships and transport utterly failed, Adm. Nimitz announced in outlining the western Pacific situation through June 26.

The foot soldier innched into Garapan, Caipan's capital, blasting out the defenders street by street. They moved two miles up the east coast through two villages. Japanese trying to braeak out of Nafutan peninsula trapped were mowed down, 200 dying in the vain effort.

Admittedly the Saipan fighting was as rough as anything yet encountered in the Pacific.

Another Trap Closing

A second trap was closing on thousands of Nip troops falling back on Wewak, New Guinea coastal base. Australians advanced 80 miles in 28 days from the southeast and another Allied force pushed down from Aitape from the north. The gap between the forces is 150 miles. In their advance the Aussies took Hansa Bay, once chief enemy coastal base. A great amount of supplies were seized there.

Gen. MacArthur's airmen bombed and strafed from the Indies to the Solomons, hitting Timor, Selaroe, Babo, Manokwari, Wewak, Sorong, Yap, Woleai, Rabaul and Bougainille.

Chinese advanced six miles from captured Mogaung toward Miitkyina, besieged North Burma city where other Chinese bowled over another enemy strongpoint. Chinese troops also forged to within three miles of Tengchung, Japanese base in southwestern China.

All Japanese west of the Kohima-Imphal road in India have been eleminated, Southeast Asia headquarters announced, and the mopup east of the highway continues.

the road junction town of Monticiano on Highway 73, and leading elements thrust beyond to within 12 miles of Siena. The village of Montalcinello also was taken.

The French, on the right wing of the Fifth army, reported substantial gains southeast of Siena.

Heavy Prisoner Bag.

It was announced that the Fifth army alone had taken over 25,000 prisoners since the offensive began seven weeks ago today.

The total bag of prisoners for the offensive exceeds 32,000.

The Eighth army reported limited gains in heavy fighting in the areas of Lake Trasimeno and north of Perugia.

West of Lake Trasimeno the villages of Frattevecchia and Lafoce were occupied. Among tropries taken were German railway guns with 70-foot barrels, firing 500 pound projectiles.

To illustrate the frame of mind of the bewildered Germans being beaten steadily back in Italy, an official spokesman cited this portion of a letter taken from a captured nazi trooper on the Fifth army front:

Cat and Mouse Game.

"For us this is no war any more, it's a cat and mouse game. Their superiority is so great in everything. Our soldiers have become indifferent as never before. x x x The Americans are finishing us off in their stride just as they please."

A medium force of 15th army air force Liberators successfully attacked two oil refineries and a rail yard at Bucharest and an airdrome at Karlovo, Bulgario, yesterday, while RAF forces at night hit objectives at Giurgiu, in Romania. The battle score for the day was 23 enemy planes downed compared with six allied planes missing.

Despite adverse weather, the Mediterranean allied air force flew 1,200 sorties, with fighter bombers ranging over the Northern Italy battle front.

clared that fierce air battles were raging there.

The night blows cabe after daylight attacks by both British and American heavy bomber formations yesterday, which included the bombing of the Saarbrucken rail yards.

Stiff Nazi Opposition

Several hundred heavy bombers carried out the night attacks, knifing their way through stiff German opposition. Metz is 30 miles from the border near the World War battle field of Verdun. The night raiders also hit Blainville nearby and other objectives around Nancy, 30 miles South of Metz.

The Germans gave further evidence of their growing concern over the effects of the Allied air attacks by their enlivened opposition over the Normandy battle front where lighter Allied war planes late yesterday made a few attacks on enemy transport and armed reconnaissance flights.

Despite the weather, which limited the scale of operations over France, a sizeable combat score was rung up. Twenty-five German planes were shot down against a loss of six Allied craft.

Sick and Convalescent.

A daughter was born tao Mrs. E. R. Morton at the P. and S. Hospital Thursday.

Kenneth Tramel had a tonsillectomy at the Waters Clinic.

Mary Gardner And Albert Bristol Wed On Tuesday

Of interest to a wide circle of friends was the marriage of Miss Mary Louise Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Homer E. Gardner, to Albert Shelton Bristol, son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert F. Bristol, which was solemnized at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the First Christian Church with Rev. Bristol, father of the bridegroom, officiating

A trio of floor baskets filled with gladioli, stock and delphinium in pastel hues provided a colorful background for the impressive double ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. M. Forester, organist, gave the wedding music, which included "Ave Maria" (Bach-Gounod) the traditional wedding marches, and the accompaniment for "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond) which was sung by Mrs. Samuel Fleming, soprano.

The bride was attractively attired in white crepe, and wore a matching bandeau of felt flowers, and white accessories. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with an orchid, which was encircled with net puffs and showered with diminutive satin ribbons.

Miss Billie Love Gardner, who served as her sister's only attendant, was gowned in dusty rose crepe, with matching bandeau, brown accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Hugh Baker of Fort Worth served the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers were Bill Robinson, Ray and Paul Bristol, and Frank Crow of Fort Worth.

Reception Held

An informal reception honoring the couple was given at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. Decorative features of the home which were fashioned of crepe myrtle, perennial phlox and marigolds provided an attractive setting for the handsome wedding gifts that were on display.

The bride's table was laid in lace and adorned with a profusion of althea blossoms and summer greenery. Mrs. J. D. Rollins of Terrell presided at the punch service, Misses Mary and Lois Bristol served individual cake squares, Mrs. J. Weley Edeus, Jr., had charge of the guest book, and Misses Beula Wynne Love, Sarah Love, and Rachel Ann Love of Terrell and Miss Betty Nell Crain assisted in hostess duties.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rollins and son, Jimmie Dan, Misses Beula Wynne Love, Sarah Love and Rachel Ann Love of Terrell, and Mrs. Frank Crow of Fort Worth.

To Live In Fort Worth

Following the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Fort Worth.

The bride was a 1943 graduate of Corsicana High School, and was chosen queen of the whole High School and Hi Y Sweetheart during her senior year. For the past year, she has been a student at North Texas State Teachers College. The bridegroom was also a 1943 graduate of Corsicana High School, and during the past year, has been a ministerial student at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth. He has also been serving as student pastor at Hamilton and other points in West Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol will continue their studies at Texas Christian University.

Rehearsal Dinner

Yellow and white daisies and yellow zinnias highlighted the decor of the Forester home, when Mrs. W. M. Forester entertained with the rehearsal dinner on Monday evening.

The lace-laid festive board held as center decoration a profusion of white phlox in a crystal container, and white tapers in crystal candelabra provided a soft illumination for the courtesy.

Covers were laid for Miss Mary Gardner and Albert Shelton Bristol, honorees of the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Gardner, Rev. and Mrs. Robert F. Bristol, Mrs. Samuel Fleming, Hugh Baker and Mr. and Mrs Frank Crow of Fort Worth, Bill Robinson, Ray and Paul Bristol, Miss Billie Love Gardner, Misses Mary and Lois Bristol and the hostess.

Albert Moore Is Named Judge For Local Horse Show

Albert Moore has been named as judge for the stock horse classes at the Victory Horse Show on July 3 and 4. Director of recreation at the state prison in Huntsville, Moore is well qualified to act as judge for the stock horses.

Moore will serve with Claude Drew, Columbia, Mo., who will judge the gaited horses. Drew has had much experience in this line of work. The committee sponsoring the event feels fortunate in procuring two such eminent men to act as judges.

The Victory Horse Show is being sponsored by the Junior Committee of the James Blair chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. W. M. Elliott is regent of this chapter, and Mrs. John N. Harris, Jr., is chairman of the Junior Committee.

The entire proceeds will be donated to the blood plasma fund of the American Red Cross. This fund is used to defray the expense of converting blood to plasma which may be preserved for long periods of time and shipped to the armed forces overseas.

Tickets are now on sale, 85 cents for adults and 35 cents for children. Boxes for the two nights or for only one night may still be obtained.

The event is to be held in the arena at the Fair Grounds on July 3 and 4 at 8 p. m.
